NARROW ESCAPE IN CAR WRECK

While out driving Sunday afternoon Sidney Harris ran his car into a bank, seriously injuring Miss Dozie Cain as well as himself and Misses Agnes Bridges and Ozie Lee Cain, also occupants of the car, sustained slight injuries.

Harris, who is a son of Dock Harris, taxi driver, was driving his father's car (sedan) and speeding toward Tennessee River ran into the bank at the last curve on the road to Trotter's Landing. As a result the car is a wreck and the young people had a very narrow escape.

Miss Cain, who was severely cut about her face, arms and hands, was rescued from the wreck by the occupants of a passing car and rushed to the office of Dr. J. M. Smyth, who dressed her wounds. Although considerably weakened by blood effusion, Miss Cain will be able to be out within a few days.

Harris sustained painful cuts on his face and arms. He met with an accident Saturday while driving Rolla Morris' car.

A UNANIMOUS VERDICT.

All in favor of employing an experienced contractor to remedy the acoustics of Benton County's otherwise splendid court house say "aye!"

So say you all, good people of Benton? Thank you.

Gentlemen of the Court Court, the verdict is unanimous. The decree has gone forth from the men, women and children of our county that you do this thing and do it instantler if not sooner.

HARK, YE!

Awake, ye business men of Camden. The glorious Fourth of July—America's great patriotic natal day—draws apace and its up to you to provide some kind of amusements and celebrate the day in a manner befitting the occasion.

Some of your children, perhaps, have never heard a Fourth of July oration or listened to the reading of the Declaration of Independence that gave us liberty.

What say to an oldtime picnic, ball game, foot races and all the accompaniments necessary for the amusement of the populace?

Its up to you, ye business men of Camden. The time is short. What is your decision?

Among the many daily blessings from our loving Heavenly Father was a bountiful rain on vegetation Tuesday, for which let us be thankful.

Best wishes to The Chronicle and its many readers.

HARD TIMES

can't touch the man or woman with the "saving" habit.

We don't mean the miser—he is one of the worst sufferers, he suffers in the spirit.

The sensible, prudent man who lives within his income and regularly lays by a little of his earnings can defy hard times.

The best way to get the "saving" habit is to start a savings account at a good bank.

You'll take a pride in watching it grow to proportions where it will work for you.

Our bank specializes in savings accounts and we pay 4 per cent on all time deposits.

We solicit your account—be it large or small.

FORWARD STEP IN CHURCH WORK

Official announcement has been given out that the $2,000,000 being sought by Presbyterians in Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee for Christian education has been subscribed.

This is welcome news to all Christian citizens, but especially in this State, $1,500,000 of the fund is to remove from Clarksville the Southwestern Presbyterian University and establish it as a Southwestern College at Memphis, known as the gateway to the Southwest.

This is a great step forward for Presbyterians, for the cause of Christian education and for this whole section, and much credit is due those who have made this great achievement possible, both those who subscribed and those who so faithfully performed the work.
